GEN AI IN PURSUITS

Creating impactful visuals in a short time using Firefly

"While working on a proposal for a client from oil and gas industry, I wanted the visuals to focus on refineries with a human-centric theme. Initially, I planned to hand-paint watercolour backgrounds to blend industrial and natural elements artistically. However, due to a tight deadline of three days, I utilized Firefly, which efficiently transformed my ideas into vibrant, dynamic visuals.

This method not only saved time but also effectively conveyed the client's innovative spirit."

Submit your Gen AI stories, use cases, prompts, and G-Marks on the GenAI Wins website and stand a chance to win something cool!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Watch out for the Outlook invite for the following sessions for the month of July:
